IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. Sarah Rebecca Bird, wife of W. B. Bird and daughter of A. and M. J. Seaton, of No. Time, Blount County, Tenn., on the 22d day of August, 1886. She was born on the 18th of August, 1860, and was united by marriage to W. B. Bird Aug. 13th, 1879.

She professed faith in Christ in 1877, and joined the M. E. Church, at Logan's Chapel, and remained a consistent member up to the time of her death. All the days of her life on earth were 26 years and 4 days. She leaves behind a husband distracted, three little children, a sorrowing, aged father and mother, and a host of friends to mourn her loss. But with great confidence we can say that our loss is her eternal gain. She had been in a bad condition of health for some time, and for several days before her death she seemed to fully realize her condition; so death did not come to her unawares. She was ready and waiting the summons from on high.
When she felt the sands of life giving away she told her mother to awake her husband and little children and let her see them all once more, "for," says she, "I will soon be gone. The angels have come and I must go." She then urged her friends to meet her in Heaven.

I would here say, for the encouragement of her friends, that I have witnessed not a few deaths but I don't know that I ever saw any one meet death with greater resignation than did she.

No fear, no foe dimmed that hour,
That manifested her Savior's power; She leaned her soul upon his breast And sweetly passed away to rest.
Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep, From which none ever wake to weep.
A calm and undisturbed repose, Unbroken by the last of foes.

In sympathy to all, I am,

F. M. WEBB.

Tuckaleeches.

On Friday evening our neighborhood was surprised to hear that Elizabeth Myers was dying. She had been suffering with rheumatism for several weeks, but was not considered dangerous. She ate a hearty dinner and then went to her son's, who lived about one hundred yards from where she lived. After walking about the house for some time, she lay down. Her daughter asked her if she was sick. She answered she was not, was only tired.
A few moments later she was found lying on the floor speechless. She lay till Saturday evening without speaking, when a convoy of angels bore her spirit home—there to meet her husband and children that had gone before.

Deceased was about 73 years old.
She professed a hope in Christ and joined the Baptist Church at the age of fifteen. She lived a devoted Christian, always ready to reprove sin in all its forms. Her door was always open for Christian people, her ears were open to the cries of the suffering, her hands were ready to assist the sick and helpless.

We have no dying words on which to form a hope of her being in a better land, but we have over fifty years of Christian walk and godly conversation.

She leaves nine children to mourn after her with a number of grandchildren, relatives and friends. In her death the children have lost a kind and affectionate mother, the church a faithful member, the sick a willing nurse.

Children and grand-children, that are unconverted, may you remember the prayers she has prayed for you, may these words ever be round about you:

A mother dear has passed away,
She will greet us here no more;
But hark! I hear her singing there, Upon the golden shore.

General News.

A large gray eagle was killed south of Knoxville, last week. It measured seven feet from tip to tip.

The rolling mills at Lebanon, Pa., were recently closed. The prices demanded were such that the proprietors could not pay.

Three hundred and eighty-five Indians passed through Montgomery, Ala., on the 18th, bound for Florida, which is to be their home.

The Indians of California cultivated this year 18,000 acres of wheat.

The donations to Charleston are said to be inadequate for the relief asked for.

It is said that Secretary Manning has been tendered the mission to Austria.

Mrs. J. B. Tipton, of Morganton, had her house destroyed by fire one night last week; supposed it was set on fire.

The negroes at Pine Bluff, Ark., will give the largest fair ever held in the South by the colored people, October 19th to 23d inclusive.

A destructive cyclone devastated southern Michigan last Thursday.
Houses, barns, orchards and crops were destroyed to a greater extent than ever known in this country.

Knoxville is going to have a broom factory. A bank officer resigns to take a place at the factory.
Look out for another earthquake.

Friendsville.

Friendsville Academy opened last week with an enrollment of 49, which has been increased to about 70; and quite a number more are expected next week. The graduating class for this year are five in number, viz.: Misses Florence Douthitt, Callie Endesley, Hester Beals, Jessie Johnson, and Mr.
Wm. Gothard. The Girls' Home under the efficient care of Mary A.
Dixon, Matron, is all in applepie order, and just the place to get good board cheap.

The health of the community is improving and most of the sick are on their feet again.

Last Sunday many of our citizens set out for the National Campmeeting grounds with flying colors, but came back with them trailing in the mud. We understood that it was not the preaching but the rain that caused the change. They reported a big crowd, with Rev. Eli Marshall, of Greene County, at the helm.

Two families have recently moved into our little town, and we still have room for two more.

Prof. Dixon, a former teacher at this place, was visiting here last week. Also a brother-in-law of T.
R. Lee, from Kansas.

Emmett Jones, of Maryville, was on our streets last Monday.

Mrs. Wm. Sexton returned home from Greene County last week, where she has been visiting the scenes of her childhood. Will's health has been better ever since.

Temperance Alliance Organized.

W. H. Henry and Isaac Thorne held a meeting at Mt. Lebanon, Monday night, having in view the organization of a temperance alliance. A constitution was drawn up and the pledge received 17 names.
A second meeting was appointed to convene at the same place on the 1st Monday in October.

Books, Stationery, Frames, &c.

The undersigned has removed his store up street to the building of R.
P. McReynolds, once occupied by Capt. Kirk for the Post Office, where his old friends and customers, and many new ones, are kindly invited to call when in need of Books, Stationery, Pictures, Picture Frames, &c. Respectfully, W. A. WALKER, Ag't.

Maryville is putting on her best garb except in streets and sidewalks—in that she is like the male peafowl who feels wonderful proud until he takes a sight of his feet, when his fine feathers fall. The feathers of every man and woman of spirit must fall when they look at our streets and sidewalks and gutters. Oh, dear, aren't they memorable? A town of over 2,000 people, and no walk to the depot! It's a shame and a disgrace. You ask, What will we do? We have no corporation; no, and we do not need one. We can easily build a walk, without having to pay a half dozen men to oversee it. Let us subscribe money and labor and get a man to oversee for his part, and we will soon have a good sidewalk to the depot.

BILE BEANS! What a funny name for a medicine! Nevertheless it is very significant as applied to the article.
Bile, according to Webster, is "a yellowish bitter, viscid, nauseous fluid, secreted by the liver." Whenever the liver does not act properly this fluid is retained in the blood and poisons the whole system, and gallstones and misery is the result. SMITH'S BILE BEANS is a sure cure for biliousness and liver complaint. Price, 25 cents per bottle.

FALL Campaign 1886!

THE REASON WHY

A number of individuals have been curious to know why it is that our store is usually full of customers—some even waiting to be served—while other houses, in the same line of trade are quiet, and some have a Sunday appearance.

THE REASONS ARE CLEAR

In the first place we carry a Larger and Finer class of Goods in all the departments of

Men's, Youth's and Boys' Clothing than is carried in any house south of Baltimore. We buy direct from Manufacturers for cash. We have no dead heads in our house, partners as well as employees work. We have no expensive building with costly rents to make our customers pay for. We are doing more business for less expense than any house in Knoxville. It has been suggested by our friends that we ought to get a larger house. It is true with greatly increased business, and a large stock, we are sometimes cramped for room, but knowing the very low price for all country produce and the difficulty with many people to clothe their families, we feel that we must put ourselves to some inconvenience in order to continue our low scale of prices. We placed the orders for an immense stock early in June, before the great advance in woollens, and the great strikes had interfered with the manufacturers, and at the same time we bought our wholesale We are fully prepared for the Fall Campaign in one of the most varied, useful and ornamental stocks of both for the merchants of the country as well as the retail trade ever presented to the people. We are selling Fine Suits at $28 and $30, sold by merchant tailors at $45; suits at $20, sold elsewhere at $30; suits at $15 sold elsewhere at $25; suits at $10, sold elsewhere at $15. In low price suits from $4 to $10, we challenge comparison in prices and style.

CLOTHING

In ties, bows, scarfs, socks, drawers, shirts, collars, cuffs, suspenders, and fine underwear our stock is fresh, elegant and unrivaled. If you want to save money come to see us.
